Wine Tasting Complimented with a Cheese Plate

Join us to experience Soaring Eagle Casino & Resort with spacious rooms, unique restaurants, and stunning views. A great get-away to enjoy the beauty of the season while treating yourself to the luxury of a Four Diamond Resort recognized for excellence. Also known as a great casino!

On our day trip you will experience a cultural journey, learning about Alden B. Dow, his philosophy, and the 20,000 square foot structure in which he lived and worked! This tourist attraction has enticed visitors worldwide since 1989, when it received its National Historic Landmark status.

Alden B. Dow sought to create quality in all that he did. Alden studied with Frank Lloyd Wright at Taliesin in Spring Green, WI in the summer of 1933. He opened his own design firm in 1934 and received the Diplome de Grand Prix at the 1937 Paris International Exposition, for his own home, as well as, the John Whitman house. Alden's father owned the Dow Chemical Company.

The afternoon will be end with a visit to St. Julian Winery for wine tasting accompanied by a cheese plate before returning to Soaring Eagle Resort for an evening on your own.

Tuesday, September 12, 2017

We'll depart at 8:30 am from St. Michael's Church parking lot, stopping en-route for a rest break and later a lunch stop at Bob Evans before arriving at the beautiful Soaring Eagle Resort and Casino for check-in. The evening is yours to enjoy the resort in the hot tub, the pool, the casino or just relaxing.
