History's Side Note

*One of the most star-studded events ever to have taken place at the Royal Albert Hall was in April 1989, when three of the greatest icons of American popular music, Frank Sinatra, Liza Minnelli and Sammy Davis Jr., came together in Frank, Liza and Sammy: The Ultimate Event.

*Such was the demand for tickets that all five concerts sold-out before even being advertised and police had to erect crush barriers outside the Hall to hold back the crowds. The event attracted a number of famous faces to sit in the audience, including Sean Connery, Roger Moore, Michael Caine and Shirley Bassey.

The show, which marked the start of the British leg of the tour, went to 27 cities around the world.

*Enjoy
Thorncreek
Winery with a tour, a glass of wine & cheese.*

A Tribute to Frank, Liza & Dean: *The Ultimate Event

This 90-minute show is a tribute to three of the greatest and most dynamic entertainers of all time. With a combination of great live singing, entertaining choreography, dancing, humor and witty dialogue, featuring more than 30 memorable songs.

Audiences are mesmerized by the experience of seeing these talented performers* as they pay tribute to the legends with songs like "My Way", "Cabaret" and "Everybody Loves Somebody". They sing plenty of other standards too, with good old fashion warmth and sincerity. The friendship, love and respect that existed between Frank, Liza and Dean is captured throughout the show creating a performance to remember!

*Suzanne Goulet as Liza Minelli, Joe Scalissi as Dean Martin and Gary Corsello as Frank Sinatra
