The Hunchback of Notre Dame

As the bells of Notre Dame's Cathedral sound in 15th century Paris, Quasimodo - a deformed, captive bell-ringer - observes the city's Feast of Fools from afar.

Escaping his jailer, Frollo, to join the festivities, Quasimodo is rejected by every reveler except the beautiful Esmeralda, with whom he is immediately smitten. A handsome captain and Frollo are equally enthralled by her and, as they vie for her attention, Frollo embarks on a malevolent mission to destroy Esmeralda's Gypsy clan and take her for himself. It's up to Quasimodo, an unlikely hero, to save the day.

"We're thrilled to do the show because it has a fabulous ensemble of great principal roles, not only Quasimodo and Esmeralda," says artistic director Charles Fee. "even more exciting," he says, "is the idea of including local choirs in the show."

Music by Alan Menken. Lyrics by Stephen Schwartz. Book by Peter Parnell. Based on the Victor Hugo novel and songs from the Disney film. Directed by Victoria Bussert.
