THE PIANO GUYS

The Utah-based quartet are famous for their prolific talent and witty sense of humor. This is your chance to experience their new album Limitless live on a stage near you.

In 2023, they unveiled their 13th album, "Unstoppable" a compilation of exhilarating and emotionally profound cover songs written over the past two years.

"Who would have ever thought four middle-aged dads from Utah filming classically influenced music in nature could ever succeed?"

Nelson. "Our favorite thing is to find a way to be on the fringes of possibility. We like to combine things you would never expect to find together—but are close enough to make sense. It has been our mindset from the beginning."

The Piano Guys have performed live on beaches, speeding trains, the Great Wall of China, the pyramids of Mexico—and are well on their way to achieving their objective of travelling to the 7 wonders of the world. Their forte has been returning their experiences to multi-generational audiences on traditional stages. What began in Palm Springs with visuals of imaginary superheros ended with real stories of superhero kindness.

They have earned recognition from publications like The New York Times, Fast Company, BuzzFeed, and Mashable. They've also graced the screens of major television networks, with appearances on CBS Sunday Morning, TODAY Show, Good Morning America, and The Tonight Show.
